

Appendix 1 – Incident Log

Incidents are classified into the following types:

- [Redacted]
- [Redacted]

Information about the incidents:

No.	Date of incident	Type	[Redacted]	[Redacted]	[Redacted]	[Redacted]
1.	01-Jul-20xx	Malicious attack	[Redacted]	[Redacted]	[Redacted]	[Redacted]
2.	17-Aug-20xx	System errors/malfunctions	[Redacted]	[Redacted]	[Redacted]	[Redacted]
3.	22-Oct-20xx	Natural disaster	[Redacted]	[Redacted]	[Redacted]	[Redacted]

Commented [270011]: To learn more about this topic, read this article:

How to handle incidents according to ISO 27001 A.16
<https://advisera.com/27001academy/blog/2015/10/26/how-to-handle-incidents-according-to-iso-27001-a-16/>

Commented [270012]:

Commented [270013]: According to the classification given above.

Commented [270014]: According to the classification given above.

Commented [270015]: Repair costs, lost working hours, etc.

Commented [270016]:

Commented [270017]:

Commented [27A8]: These are only examples; change the information according to your organization's practices.